

QUALITY

Our philosophy is to offer our clientele only the highest quality materials, unique design options and the highest possible customer service. Each carriage house door is custom designed to fit your particular specifications and application. Every door is meticulously hand crafted to ensure an unmatched quality of construction our craftsman can provide.

“Many times the garage doors are an after thought to a home. Our carriage house doors add to the style and over all feel of our home.”
—Jill and David Eyre

TIMELESS

At Wasatch Carriage House Doors we understand the importance of natural wood materials. Solid wood has been the choice of fine craftsman for centuries. We were not the first to build Carriage house doors, but we have improved on a good thing with our custom door designs. Use one of our classic designs or dream up one of your own. It is our goal to help you create a door you will enjoy for a long time.

“After being in our home for five years we decided to change our garage doors. We love the look and feel of the natural wood. The carriage house doors add the needed warmth to the look of our home.”

—Chris Andrus

UNIQUE

It is very common for a carriage house garage door to become the focal point of the residence. Our doors add an extra special touch to your home. Elegant, unique, and timeless are words often used to describe how our doors contribute to the appearance of your home. It is no surprise our doors grace some of the finest homes in the region.

“I wanted a classy way to store my toys, the carriage house door made my storage garage and aesthetic part of my home’s landscape”
—Jon Chamberlain
